Message from Pastor Johnson

The Prodigal Son ... Melody in F

I was going through some old papers this week when I came across this classic. I just thought you might like to share in the chuckle:

"Feeling footloose and frisky, a feather-brained fellow forced his fond father to fork over the farthings, and flew far to foreign fields, frittering away his fortune fabulously with faithless friends.

Fleeced by his fellows in folly, and facing famine, he found himself a feed-flinger in a filthy farmyard. Fairly famishing, he fain would have filled his frame with foraged food from fodder fragments.

'Fooley,' the frazzled fugitive forlornly fretted, 'my father's flunkies fare far finer.' Frankly facing facts he fled forthwith to his family. Falling at his father's feet, he forlornly fumbled, 'Father, I have flunked, and fruitlessly forfeited favor.' The farsighted father, forestalling further flinching, frantically flagged the flunkies to fetch a fatling from the flock and fix a feast.

The fugitive's fault-finding brother frowned on fickly forgiveness of former folderol; but the faithful father figured filial fidelity is fine but the fugitive is found! What forbids fervent festivity? Let flags be unfurled! Let fanfare flare!

The father's forgiveness formed the foundation for the former fugitive's future fortitude." (By Phil Kerr)
